Attendance of Conferences and Symposiums:

- The third annual meeting of the association of colleges of pharmacy in the arab world ,October 17-19,1999.
- Alexandria second international conference of pharmaceutical science and technology October 25-27 (2002).
- BioVision Alexandria2004 " The New life Sciences Ethics Patents the Poor" Bibliotheca Alexandrina, 3-6April 2004.
- 65th International Congress of FIP. Cairo, Stember/3-8/ 2005
- BioVision Alexandria2008 "New life Sciences from Promises to practice" Bibliotheca Alexandrina 12-14 April 2008.
- The first International Conference of the Quality Assurance and accreditation center Cairo University " Quality and Accreditation The present and prospective " 15 April 2008.
- BioVision Alexandria2010 "New life Sciences :Future Prospects" Bibliotheca Alexandrina 11-15 April 2010.
- The 22nd pharmaceutical congress of the Order of Lebanese Pharmacists, 24-26 October 2014.
- 21st LAAS International Science Conference« Horizon 2020: Advances in Sciences and technology »Saint Joseph University (USJ), Damascus Road, Beirut, Lebanon April 15-17, 2015
- 1 st Scientific Congress of Lebanese Food,Drugand Chemicals administration (LFDCA) "Safety in Drug,Food and Water" 16/3/2018 The Lebanese University
- The Third Forum on Advancing Pharmacy Education in the Middle East and the Gulf region 8-9/5/2018 Beirut Arab University
- The Third International Conference "Towards Best Pharmacy Practices 8-9/5/2018 Beirut Arab University
- First Annual Lebanese Pharmacy Schools Symposium February 2024,
- Third International Conference & Exhibition on Pharmaceutical and Healthcare Sciences (PHS 2024) October 23–25, 2024 and organized by the Faculty of Pharmacy, Alexandria University. Prof. Azza Ghazy participated as a moderator in the session entitled: "Towards Greener Pharmaceutical Research" and facilitated dynamic presentations and discussions centered on sustainable innovations in pharmaceutical research.

Reviews:

1. Differential Pulse and Square-Wave Stripping Voltammetry and its Pharmaceutical and Biomedical Applications
2. Stability-indicating High performance thin -layer chromatographic methods in pharmaceutical analysis

Honours and awards

Projects:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Alexandria University prize of scientific encouragement, Alexandria University, December, 1997 - National encouragement prize for medical sciences Academy of Scientific Research of the Arab Republic of Egypt, 2007. - Distinguishable peer reviewer (Mar 2008 by National Committee for QA and Accreditation, Ministry of Higher Education, Egypt). <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Prof. Ghazi successfully secured a Joint Research Project funded by the National Council for Scientific Research (CNRS) and Beirut Arab University, with funding of $33,000 over two years. The project, titled "Assessment of the efficacy of narrow therapeutic index drugs using advanced analytical methods", reflects a collaboration between BAU's Faculty of Pharmacy and the Lebanese Atomic Energy Commission (LAEC) – CNRS. Prof. Ghazi served as the principal investigator for this significant initiative. • She played a pivotal role in designing and preparing a new Master's program in "Pharmacogenomics and Personalized Medicine" at the Faculty of Pharmacy, Beirut Arab University. This program resulted from an ERASMUS+ grant worth one million euros awarded to Alexandria University in collaboration with esteemed international partners. • Continuous Improvement and Qualifying for Accreditation Project (CIQAP)" Faculty of Pharmacy Alexandria University. (2007-2010) • Development of Student Assessment and exams in Alexandria University project (2008-2010)
