

BAU DEGREES & ACCREDITATION STATUS

One of the most important strategic plans of BAU is to achieve international accreditation for the institution as well as the academic programs:

- In 2012, the University received unconditional validation of the Architecture program from the Royal Institute of British Architects (RIBA), which is a professional institution founded for the advancement of architecture.
- In 2013, the University attained International Accreditation for the Communication and Electronics Engineering program at the Faculty of Engineering and the Computer Science Program at the Faculty of Science, from the Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology (ABET), which is the board assigned for accrediting programs in colleges and universities in the United States of America in the Applied Sciences, Computer Science, Engineering, and Technology.
- In 2014, the Faculty of Dentistry received International Recognition from the Association for Dental Education in Europe (ADEE) on the basis that the Faculty program is up to the standard of those of European faculties.
- In 2015, the Faculty of Pharmacy received International Accreditation for its program from the Canadian Council for Accreditation of Pharmacy Programs (CCAPP), which is responsible for accrediting Canadian and International Pharmacy Programs.
- In 2015, Beirut Arab University attained International Institutional Accreditation from the Foundation for International Business Administration Accreditation (FIBAA), which is a German foundation internationally acknowledged by official bodies, and registered in the European Quality Assurance Register (EQAR).
- In 2015, the Faculty of Business Administration received International Accreditation for the Bachelor and MBA programs from the Foundation for International Business Administration Accreditation (FIBAA).
- In 2016, the Physical Therapy Program at the Faculty of Health Sciences received International Accreditation from the World Confederation for Physical Therapy (WCPT).
- In 2016, the Bachelor, Master and PhD Law programs at the Faculty of Law & Political Science received International Accreditation from the Foundation for International Business Administration Accreditation (FIBAA).
- In 2017, the university attained International Accreditation for the Psychology Program at the Faculty of Human Sciences from the Accreditation Agency in Health & Social Sciences (AHPGS).